

- Key Question: Who is the risen King?
- Big Idea: Jesus is the risen King
- Memory Verse: “He is not here; Jesus is risen” Matthew 28:6
- Bible Story Focus: Mary and Martha - Luke 10:38-42.

Let's Rhyme

Let us sing our rhyme for this month to the tune of “1,2,3,4,5 Once I caught a fish alive...”

1,2,3,4,5 ...
I know Jesus is Alive
6,7,8,9,10
He died for me and rose again
Why did He have to die?
So I could have eternal life..
Where does He live today?
In Heaven and he hear me when I pray...

Let's do

Big things first

What you will need – Sand, or rice, some big items and cups

Say – Big items represents Jesus rice or sand represent other things in our life like playing, toys, watching tv, games etc.

What you will do – First fill the cup with rice or sand and then try to put the big item in. The cup should be too full to fill in large item.

Next repeat the activity with largest item first. Now pour in the rice or sand. Everything should fit in now. Speak about how we must put God first in our lives and how everything else will fit in well when we put God first. But if we put other things first, we will have no room for Jesus in our hearts.

Let's Read

What you need: Bible

It's story time! Do you know where's our story is from? Yes, the Bible! The Bible is God's special book. The stories in God's Word are true. Raise your hand if you know the Bible is a special book. Yes, and if it's in the bible, it's true, because the Bible is True!

One day, Jesus stopped in a village called Bethany. While there, Jesus went to visit His friends. They were two sisters named Martha and Mary.

They were very happy to see Jesus. Martha rushed into the kitchen to prepare some food. Mary sat down by Jesus' feet to listen to Him speak. Mary treasured her time with Jesus and knew how important it was to listen to Him.

Martha knew Jesus was a very special guest. She wanted everything to be perfect. She rushed here and there. She cooked and cleaned. She was upset her sister did not help. Finally, she was fed up. Martha asked Jesus to tell Mary off and to ask her to help. But Jesus said, "Martha you choose to do something good, but Mary has chosen the best." It is good to treat people well and love others as Martha did for Jesus and His friends. But in all our business, we must remember that Jesus is our Risen King and He is here with us always. We must always stop and spend time listening to Him.

Jesus is alive today and He loves to spend time with us. So, every day let's remember to pray to our Risen King and spend time with Him.

Our Big Idea this month is Jesus is the risen King. So "Who is the risen King?" [Big Idea] "Jesus is the risen King." Let us say that again: "Who is the risen King?" [Big Idea] "Jesus is the risen King."

Let's Pray

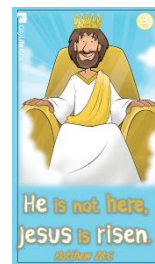

"Dear God, I am so thankful Jesus loves us and He is the risen King. Help us to praise Him just like the people in our lesson. Hosanna. In Jesus' name, Amen."

Let's do our Memory Verse (Preschool 3-4)

Memory Verse

"He (point up) is not here (shake head and hands as to say 'no'); Jesus (point up) is risen (palms flat facing up lifting up to the sky)." Matthew 28:6 (open hands like a book)

"He is not here; Jesus is risen" Matthew 28:6
