Join us as we partner with CityLife Ethiopia and support our field partner Sue Carpenter in reaching and discipling the next generation. Last year, CityLife Ethiopia celebrated 15 years since the first church plant established by Paulos and Ababo Djini. What began as a single church has since multiplied into 40 church plants across Ethiopia, impacting countless lives with the hope of the Gospel. We're looking for people with a heart for Jesus, a love for children and young people, and a willingness to serve wherever God opens the door. Expect opportunities to encourage and empower young people in their identity in Christ; learn and model listening prayer and hearing God's voice; and serve alongside the local church.
